Mobile phone the marvellous innovation of disciplined mechanization has engulfed the totality. We are left behind with few thought of what it might usher us into. The play takes this grievous issue and presents it in the most light-hearted vein with hilarious segments at its best.

The play narrates a recital carried out by characters King named Mr. Nipungfha, his Minister and his seven queens. The story unfolds when the king gifts his queens the most sought-after invention i.e. 'Phusukali', before he sets out on a long journey. Only to come back and find that this amazing device has enchanted them, enticed them away from their assiduousness towards fidelities. The adverse effect is perceived in variegated length-depletion of enlightenment and practice. Progenies got worst afflicted, some even born with anomalies.

In order to amuse the onlookers, Performers have thrived to submit the axiom of Grenville Kleiser- "By constant discipline and self control you can develop greatness of character".
